ROMANS 8:37

Romans 8:31-32 NIV

What, then, shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all – how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?

Romans 8:35-36 NIV

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? As it is written: “For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.”

Romans 8:37-38 NIV

No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons neither the present nor the future, nor any powers,

Rom 13:13-14

“ Let us live honourably as in the day, not in reveling and drunkenness, not in debauchery & licentiousness,
not quarrelling and jealousy.
Instead put on Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.”

Reflection Questions :

- How could the enemy try to keep me from moving ahead in my walk with God?
- How could God help me to become an overcomer?
- Who in my life could I confide in and ask for prayer in overcoming temptations?
