Change

Christ changes everything
we know about life.

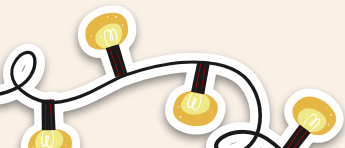

<sup>6</sup> There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. <sup>7</sup> He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, that all might believe through him. <sup>8</sup> He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light.

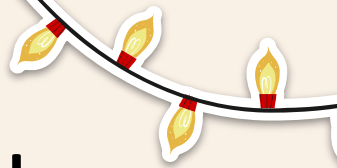

We've a story to tell to the nations,
that shall turn their hearts to the right,
a story of truth and mercy,
a story of peace and light.

* * *
For the darkness shall turn to dawning,
And the dawning to noonday bright,
And Christ's great kingdom shall come,
the kingdom of love and light.

But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God.

“Many years ago, I had a dream. In this dream, I was brought into this huge, huge hall. You can’t even see the end of it.

“There were just people from end-to-end worshipping God together. Millions and millions of people together in this big room. An angel led me into another room.

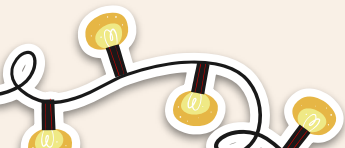

When he opened the door, the room was totally dark. But I could see everything. “When we return to our heavenly Father, He will give to us the body that allows us to worship Him in fullness. I look forward to that.”

Truth, without life, is hopeless.

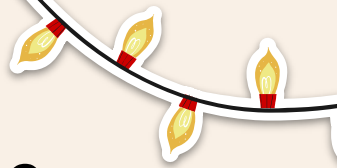

Life without truth, is meaningless.

Jesus gives us both truth and life.

<sup>9</sup> The true light, which gives light to everyone, was coming into the world. <sup>10</sup> He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world did not know him. <sup>11</sup> He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. <sup>12</sup> But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God,

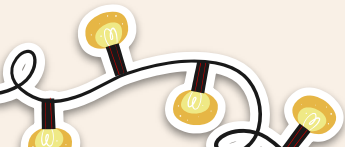

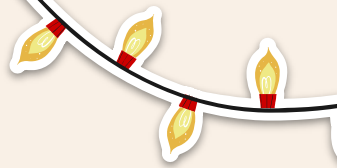

<sup>12</sup> But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God...<sup>14</sup> And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth

<sup>9</sup> The true light, which gives light to everyone, was coming into the world. <sup>10</sup> He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world did not know him. <sup>11</sup> He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. <sup>12</sup> But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God,

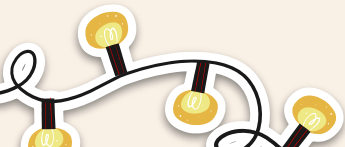

God's light came into the world, but people loved the darkness more than the light, for their actions were evil. <sup>20</sup> All who do evil hate the light and refuse to go near it for fear their sins will be exposed. <sup>21</sup> But those who do what is right come to the light so others can see that they are doing what God wants.
